

The Honorable Kathus A Duratt, states

I'm an 85 year old Coal Miners widow.
Even tho my Bible tells me not to be weary, I am.
Frankly I'm scared of my future. I have multiple health problems which is expected at my age.
I receive 1,435 a month social security, which is all I would have to live if benefits were taken away. I have to pay lawn care, housekeeping home insurance and other needs. I have credit of just medical. My husband started in Coal Mines at age 17 had to retire with black lung at age 24 with 32 years of mining. Nobody took him to court about black lung. His case was proved in the Courts. I had to give him breathing Treatments for years and watched him bring up bloody sputum.
